DAVID SHOR ELECTED CHAIRMAN OF OJAI FILM FESTIVAL

Ojai, California. November 16, 2007 – The Ojai Film Festival announced today that David H. Shor has been elected as Chairman of its Board of Directors.

“It is a great honor to serve as Ojai Film Festival’s Chairman as we begin our 9th year, especially considering the extraordinary stature and celebrity of our other board members and the significance that our film festival has achieved,” says Shor. “Over the past several years films entered and screened at the Ojai Film Festival have gone on to win Oscars and other major awards and it is our intention to continue the tradition of providing filmmakers and film enthusiasts with a relaxing and friendly environment to enjoy groundbreaking films” added Shor.

Mr. Shor of Santa Barbara, California is Managing Partner of Labrador Pictures and Labrador Media Group. Mr. Shor, a veteran motion picture producer and entertainment industry consultant, has also served as President of the Tahoe-Reno International Film Festival and is a member of the Producers Panel of the Cannes Film Festival. In addition Mr. Shor serves on several other corporate and not-for-profit boards

The Ojai Film Festival is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting and supporting the art of the motion picture through the presentation of an annual multi day festival in which films submitted by filmmakers throughout the world are publicly exhibited at several venues in and around the city of Ojai, California. Only 70 miles northwest of Hollywood, the idyllic town of Ojai features world-renowned spas and golfing in a small town setting.
